CUSCO

Location

Cusco, the gateway to Machu Picchu, is located in the valley of the Huatanay River in the southeast of the Andes at 3400 meters above sea level. Cusco is 1153 Kms. southwest from Lima.

History

Cusco is the former capital of Tahuantinsuyo, the center of the Empire of the Four Regions and the "Navel of the world". From this city unfurled one of the most remarkable empires in the history of mankind. The Incas expanded their frontiers in less than one hundred years from the north of Quito in Ecuador to Santiago de Chile far south. In the eastern direction they reached Argentina. Although the Incas are not well known in the western world, they were bigger than many ancient cultures intensively studied.
